Nancy, my name is Candice Wicks. I honestly believe that your Ethel is the same as my husband's ggrandma. Ethel Mae Coil was born on October 9, 1888.
She died in August of 1976. She married Ira J. Greenwalt on November 23, 1908, in Jefferson County. They had 9 kids. Kelly was not my husband's biological grandpa. But Kelly was the only grandpa that my husband knew. I am willing to share the information that I have on the Greenwalt's with you, if you wouldn't mind sharing your information on the Coil's with me. But I'm telling you Nancy, your Ethel really does sound like my husband's ggrandma.
Because when you mentioned Mehettie, I knew that your Ethel has to be my husband's ggrandma. Because Mehettie is my husband's gggrandma. This is such a shock to me. I just can't believe this. I have been waiting for so long to find somebody that might be able to give me any kind of information on the Coil's. Well I have to go for now. But I will e-mail you with more information very soon. Candy and Troy Wicks.

Aniel was a nephew of Simon Coil. According to the 1900 census Aniel & Hettie had 3 daughters - Mary E. born 12-1882, Ethel M. born 10-1888, and Susan C born 9-1894. I have been looking for information about this family and am wondering if your Ethel could be mine also. I would appreciate

Nancy, Troy and I can't even begin to thank you for all of the information that you have given us about the Coil's. You are like a guardian angel to us. Troy and I live in Rock Falls, Illinois. It is about 2 1/2 hours away from Chicago. In the information that I have on the Greenwalt's, I am going to start with Ethel. Ethel Mabel Coil md. Ira J. Greenwalt on November 23, 1908 in Jefferson County, Illinois. They had a total of 9 kids, 2 girls and 7 boys. Orville was born July 04, 1909. He died September 13, 1910. Kelly was born on November 27, 1913, and he died in March of 1987. Robert Lee Greenwalt was born on July 01, 1916 and died on March 17, 1991. Jeffery Samuel was born March 30, 1919 and died on July 24, 1993. Gale Gilbert was June 08, 1921 and died December 22, 1988. They have 4 other kids that are still living. Ira J. Greenwalt's parents were Jeffery Greenwalt and Mary J. (McConnaughay) Greenwalt. Jeffery's parents were David and Nancy (Garrison) Greenwalt. I am so happy that I found you through the Greenwalt mailing list. It is so nice to know that someone is out there and that does know about your family. Just to let you know Ethel, Aniel, and Mehettie are all buried in the Garrison Temple Cemetery in Wayne County, Illinois. I don't have any information on Mary E. and Susan C., yet. But I am going to start looking for them this week. I will send you some more information about the Greenwalt's later on tonight or tomorrow. But once again, thank you so much for all of the help that you have given us. We really appreciate it. And yes, we would love to have a copy of Aniel's and Mehettie's marriage license. Hope to hear from you soon, Candy and Troy.

Hi, Nancy! I have been searching and trying to find information on the Greenwalt's for about 1 1/2 years. There have been a lot of wonderful people that have helped me along the way. In the information that I have Aniel H. Coil was born in 1856 and died in 1929. Hettie was born in 1861 and died in 1948. Me and Troy are on Social Security and we don't have a whole lot of money. But as soon as we can afford it, Troy and I are going to try to send in some money to see if we can get a copy of Ethel's social security application. But I still like to do as much reasearch as I can. I was going to e-mail you earlier today to let you know that Hettie's name is on the church membership list. Some time tomorrow I will send you more information on the Greenwalt's. Nancy, Troy and I would love to have a copy of Abraham's and Samantha Clark's marriage certificate. Thank you so much for taking the time to do this for us. We really appreciate it.

Our address is:

Candy and Troy Wicks Phone # 815-622-0902
P. O. Box 216
Rock Falls, IL. 61071

I have something to tell you. Before Ethel and Ira got married, Aniel was totally against her marrying Ira. And he told her that he would not be there to see her get married. So, Ethel walked down the road where she saw Ira. And I believe that they got married in Jefferson County. But I'll check out my information tomorrow. I didn't know if you knew that or not. so that is why I told you. But anyway, I really don't want to bore you, anymore, So, I guess that I will close for now. Candy.

Hi, Nancy! We (me and my family) found out that my aunt had a massive heart attack and that she has diabetes "sp". She also may have cancer. But we won't know for sure for a while. So as you can probably tell, I feel like my world is falling apart. The only thing that is keeping me together is Troy and doing genealogy. I haven't had the pleasure of e-mailing Mr. Jeff Potter. You are the only person that I have e-mailed to find out about the Coils. But maybe some day I will have the pleasure of sharing my information about the Greenwalt's with Jeff, too. I have some news to tell you about Jeffrey Greenwalt. Jeffrey is Ira's dad.

Jeffrey was born May 9, 1838. He died on Jan. 22, 1901, in Duncan, Oklahoma. He died of Pneunmonia. He married 3 times. Mary Jane " Polly " McConnaughhay. She was born May 26, 1854. She died June 19, 1893. Mary's parents were Billy and Nancy (Henson) McConnaughhay). But anyway, Jeffrey and Mary had 3 children together. Their children's names are Edna Greenwalt and I have no information on her, Carrie A. Greenwalt and the only information that I have on her is that she was born in 1869 and died on August 14, 1946, and Ira. Ira was born on Nov. 12, 1886, in Marion County, Illinois. Jeffrey and Mary got married on November 14, 1884, in Jefferson County, Illinois.

Jeffrey then married Minerva Fields Harvey. They only lived together for about 2 months and got a divorce. Because they had a large family and they didn't get along.

Jeffrey then married Nancy Meriah Horton. They had 7 children, Minnie, Martha, Samuel Grant Greenwalt, John, Will, Abe, and Rebecca. Minnie died at a young age. She was thrown off of a cart being pulled by an oxen. Martha also died at a young age because she swallowed a pin.

Well I guess that I should go for now. I will e-mail you more later on today. But I want to thank you so much for understanding why it was taking me so long to get back to you. Candy.

Nancy ,

I take it you live in Ca.?

There is a reunion of the Greenwalts each Labor day weekend Wayne City IL.If you ever find yourself near then or any time please give me a call.

Here is a quick(and short) rundown of what I know. I will be glad to share anything I have.

Aniel H. Coil went by his middle name Harlen ...Hod for short.

His daughter Ethel married Ira Jeffery Greenwalt on 11/23/1908 in Jefferson Co. IL.

Ethel's brothers and sisters were :Clarence , Lizzie,Jimmie,Susie,Becky & Pearl.

Ethel & Ira had 9 children: Orville,Dora , Kelly,Bob,Harlen,Jeffery(my grandfather),Gilbert,Gearl and Lena.

Dora , Harlen,Gearl and Lena are still living.

Dora is about 90 yrs old and still has a great memory ...she has been a big help .

Mehettie Doty 's father was Jereimah Doty , a civil was veteran. He took ill and died in 1863. We have a picture of him in his uniform.

He was in Company F 123 rd IL inf. He is buried in Westfield IL.

(one of my cousins is named Jerry Meyer after Jereimah. The name was mis-pronounced for many years in S IL.) I spent a lot of time looking for Jerry Meyer Doty!

I'm sure I have left you with many questions ....Anything else I can do or just to fill you in on this branch of the family let me know.

I 'll be sure and take my camera this weekend if you are interested in seeing

IRA GREEWALT was the son of JEFFERY GREENWALT (born May 9, 1838)
(died Jan. 22, 1901)

his second wife
MARY (POLLY) McCONNAUGHHAY (born May 26, 1854) (died June 19, 1893)

Both are buried at Garrison Temple Cemetery

3 children were born to this marriage:
CARRIE (married Francis Hardway) Alvena Addis' mother
IRA
EDNA (married Harshel Edgington) Doyle & John's mother

POLLY died at the age of 39 from tuberculosis. Approximately 6 years after his mother died, Ira went to Indian Territory (Duncan, Oklahoma) with his dad. His dad died in Duncan of pneumonia. He was buried there and about a year later his body was moved to Garrison Temple where memorial services were held. Jeffery was a civil war veteran.

At the age of 15 Ira drove a team and wagon back to Illinois.

JEFFERY was married first to NANCY HORTON. 7 children were born
MINNIE (died young, was thrown off a cart being pulled by oxen)
MARTHA (died at a young age, swallowed a pin)
SAM (raised Ira after his dad died)
ABE
REBECCA (mother of Clara Stuber Marberry)
The above children were half brothers and sisters to Ira.

After Polly died, Jeffery married Minerva Fields Harvey. They lived together approximately 2 months and divorced as there was a large family on both sides and they could not get along.

JEFFERY GREENWALT'S father was DAVID GREENWALT and his mother was NANCY GARRISON
Both are buried at Garrison Temple close to Jeffery's monument but there are no markers.

The story is that David and his 2 brothers (originally from Kentucky) came here from Springfield, Ill. with an old hunter and David met Nancy, fell in love at first sight, and married her. (She was born and raised where Bert and Ruth Minor now live.)

POLLY MCCONNAUGHHAY GREENWALT'S father was BILLY MCCONNAUGHHAY and her mother was NANCY HENSON

Both are buried at the McConnaughhay Cemetery (west of gate) but have no markers.
Polly was a sister to Lizzie Bradford's mother (Mandy McConnaughhay Wilson)

IRA JEFFERY GREENWALT   Born--November 12, 1886 married (Nov. 23, 1908)   Died--May 27, 1967

ETHEL MAY COIL   Born--October 9, 1888

9 children:: Orville, Dora, Kelly, Bob, Jeffery and Harlen(twins)

Gib, Gearl and Lena

Ethel's father did not want her to get married so when she told him (the morning of her wedding day) that she was getting married anyway, he became real angry and she started out on foot and met her husband to be down the road (same road that Gearl lives on now). He was in a buggy. She lived where Bob and Daisy now live and he lived in Marion Co. where Fred and Belle Blankenship used to live. (Malachi Michael now lives there.)

They went to Mt. Vernon and got their license. Came back to Bill Wilson's and he married them. He lived in Marion Co. on what is now known as the Jake Keen place on the Marion-Jefferson County Line. They got their license in Jefferson Co. so they all walked over far enough into Jefferson Co. to make it legal and Mr. Wilson married them out in the field. Mary Ann Wilson and Lock Wilson, wife & son of Bill Wilson were their witnesses. Bill Wilson was Wayne Wilson's great uncle.

IRA and ETHEL celebrated their 50th WEDDING ANNIVERSARY in 1958 with open house for their family and friends.

ORVILLE, their first born, died at the age of 14 months. He fell off a porch and hit the back of his head on a rock step. He suddenly became ill 2 weeks later and died. The doctor thought it was brain concussion caused from the fall.
He was born July 4, 1909------Died Sept. 13, 1910.
The accident happened at the home of Almer & Della Sandy. They lived where Finley and Norma Shields now live (same house but has been remodeled)

Ira and Ethel moved 17 times during their married life. On the following page are all the places they resided. Also where each child was born is given.

Modesto Woman, 76, Witness To Japanese Invasions, Passes

Mrs. Cora C. Lyle, 76, of Modesto, who lived in the Far East for 16 years and witnessed the Japanese invasions during World War II, died yesterday in her home. She had been an invalid for many years.

Mrs. Lyle, who was returned to this country aboard a repatriation ship in August, 1945, went to China 16 years ago to live with her daughter and son in law, Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Wilcox, who were serving as American missionaries.

Was In Philippines

She was in China in 1937 when the Chinese war broke out. In 1940, she was moved to the Philippines, where she saw the Japanese invasion.

Since she was an invalid, the Japanese did not intern her in a concentration camp. Mrs. Lyle was in Manila when the city was retaken by the Americans and witnessed the cross firing between the American and Japanese troops.

Since her return to this country, she had been making her home with Mrs. Mae Mark, Route 2, Box 973A.

She is survived by her daughter, who returned to the United States with her husband and now resides in Angwin; a brother, James G. Conner of Redding; a sister, Mrs. Evelyn Jenkins of Armstrong, British Columbia; three grandchildren, Mrs. Lois Johnson of Los Angeles, Wendell Lyle Wilcox of Angwin, and Bonnibelle Wilcox of Angwin, and one great grandchild.

Funeral services are scheduled for 3 P. M. tomorrow in Moore's Chapel with Elder M. L. Venden officiating. Interment will be in the Modesto Cemetery.

About FamilySearch Pedigree Resource File

The Pedigree Resource File is a new lineage linked database of records available on compact disc containing family history records submitted by individuals through FamilySearch Internet Genealogy Service. Family information is organized in family groups and pedigrees and includes submitted notes and sources. Many charts and reports can be printed from this data. Each disc contains about 1.1 million names. With the publication of every five discs, a master index for those discs will be published and packaged with that set of discs. With the publication of every 25 discs, a master index for those discs will also be published and packaged with that volume of discs. Discs may be purchased as sets or volumes.

Just this last and then I'm off to take my bath and call it a day.

What we know about Hazel: Her dad's first name was Orin. According to the second letter, Orin and Edward's sister went to live in Portland, OR. Portland's in Multnomah county. I looked there for anyone named Orin, Oren, Oran, Oron, did not find anyone who had several children and was approximately the same age as James (according to comments made in second letter).

I did find a couple Orin or Orens in other parts of the country who had a wife named Cora (close enough to Corinne?), but nothing I could pin my hat on. Just wishful thinking. Of course it's always possible Corinne went by a middle name later in life, and since we don't know what her middle name was, we are between a rock and a hard place in making a connection. She could've even changed her name completely -- I've seen that done several times, I'm sure you have too.

There were lots of Hazels in Shasta County but none within a few pages on Edward on the census. There's an Orin C. Preston 5 pages away from Edward with a wife named Ann, but she only has one living child, 2 total. And born MO, mother not born ME.

I've looked in 1910 for anyone born ca 1869 to a father born OH and a mother born ME. Corinne was born OH according to the KS census, but she was only 1 then and might think later on she was born KS so I checked that out. I didn't see anything I could connect to.

But maybe you will. I've been on my computer all day so probably wouldn't see something if it reached out and bit me at this point.

Here's a transcription of that census I told you about re Mary Asenath (Peabody) Collins:
1870 Oskaloosa, Grasshopper Falls Twp., Jefferson County, KS, taken June 15, at HH#242/254, Mary Conner, age 25, born ME. She is keeping house and has household goods in the amount of $200. She has a one-year-old daughter, Corinne, born OH. Mary's mother is foreign-born. Also in the household is Mary W. Peabody, age 41, "living with daughter", born New Brunswick, her mother foreign-born. On the previous census (1860), both Marys were living with the rest of their Peabody family in Franklin County, IA, headed by Aaron Peabody. Mary had two brothers, Aaron Filmore Peabody (my great-grandfather) and Albion Perley Peabody (Perley being his grandmother's maiden name). There was another sister, Kate Pauline, but she died in 1862 (born in 1860).

In 1890 when Aaron Peabody applied for his soldier's pension, he stated that Aaron Filmore and Albion Perley were his only children still living, so Mary must've been deceased by then.

Good luck, hope you find something! --Ilene

Modesto Woman, 76, Witness To Japanese Invasions, Passes

Mrs. Cora C. Lyle, 76, of Modesto, who lived in the Far East for 16 years and witnessed the Japanese invasions during World War II, died yesterday in her home. She had been an invalid for many years.

Mrs. Lyle, who was returned to this country aboard a repatriation ship in August, 1945, went to China 16 years ago to live with her daughter and son in law, Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Wilcox, who were serving as American missionaries.

Was In Philippines

She was in China in 1937 when the Chinese war broke out. In 1940, she was moved to the Philippines, where she saw the Japanese invasion.

Since she was an invalid, the Japanese did not intern her in a concentration camp. Mrs. Lyle was in Manila when the city was retaken by the Americans and witnessed the cross firing between the American and Japanese troops.

Since her return to this country, she had been making her home with Mrs. Mae Mark, Route 2, Box 973A.

She is survived by her daughter, who returned to the United States with her husband and now resides in Angwin; a brother, James G. Conner of Redding; a sister, Mrs. Evelyn Jenkins of Armstrong, British Columbia; three grandchildren, Mrs. Lois Johnson of Los Angeles, Wendell Lyle Wilcox of Angwin, and Bonnibelle Wilcox of Angwin, and one great grandchild.

Funeral services are scheduled for 3 P. M. tomorrow in Moore's Chapel with Elder M. L. Venden officiating. Interment will be in the Modesto Cemetery.

Modesto Woman, 76, Witness To Japanese Invasions, Passes

Mrs. Cora C. Lyle, 76, of Modesto, who lived in the Far East for 18 years and witnessed the Japanese invasions during World War II, died yesterday in her home. She had been an invalid for many years.

Mrs. Lyle, who was returned to this country aboard a repatriation ship in August 1945, went to China 18 years ago to live with her daughter and son in law, Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Wilcox, who were serving as American missionaries.

Was In Philippines

She was in China in 1937 when the Chinese war broke out. In 1940, she was moved to the Philippines, where she saw the Japanese invasion.

Since she was an invalid, the Japanese did not intern her in a concentration camp. Mrs. Lyle was in Manila when the city was retaken by the Americans and witnessed the cross firing between the American and Japanese troops.

Since her return to this country, she had been making her home with Mrs. Mae Mark, Route 2, Box 272A.

She is survived by her daughter, who returned to the United States with her husband and now resides in Angwin; a brother, James G. Conner of Redding; a sister, Mrs. Evelyn Jenkins of Armstrong, British Columbia; three grandchildren, Mrs. Lois Johnson of Los Angeles, Wendell Earle Wilcox of Angwin, and Evangeline Wilcox of Angwin, and one great grandchild.

Funeral services are scheduled for 3 P. M. tomorrow in Moore's Chapel with Elder M. L. Vendon officiating. Interment will be in the Modesto Cemetery.

This family is just full of surprises.

1930 Federal census of District 67, Union Twp., Jackson County, OR, page 83, taken Apr 25-26, HH#56:
Horace C. Lyle, living alone, age 61, married when he was 21, born Nova Scotia, farmer, general farm. Wonder where Clorinda Corinne is?
also found that Iowa did have a state census, but apparently nothing on-line except 1856. Mary A. was in Canaan, Cerro Gordo County, IA, age 11, with her Peabody family. If we could see Iowa state census for 1866, it might tell us if Mary A. is still with her family, which would disprove the 1864 marriage thing.

I give up for tonight.

I know this is a shot in the dark, but I looked up the surname Simmons and didn't find anyone by that name in the 1860 or 1870 census of Franklin County, IA. Born ME or not. There were quite a few Simmons' in Fayette County, OH, but none of them were born ME.

There was a Simmons family in Jefferson County, IA in 1870 that were born ME, and a married couple in Hardin County, OH who were born ME. That's it, state-wide.

Just in case, I looked at Rootsweb for Conner/Simmons families with nothing useful.

Here's a thought: Could Mary Asenath Peabody Conner have married a Simmons?? I'm going to see if I can find anything on that. --Ilene Here's what I got from Fayette County. Maybe they got married in Iowa? I don't think I asked for a lookup there, but seems like I did a long time ago and didn't get anything. I'll go try again tonight.

The 1864 marriage date was given to me by the Peabody family somewhere along the line, I guess James' death information saying his mother's last name was Simmons is a good clue that maybe Mary Asenath wasn't his mother. And then that would make the marriage date wrong, too, because he wasn't born till 1866. But isn't it strange that both Mary Asenath and this Simmons wife were born Maine!

Victor Hillard's information was very interesting. I wonder how come neither of us found that before? It was posted several years ago.

I found a census record for Horace Irvine Crandall Lyle and Clorinda Corinne Conner:
1910 Federal Census of Lincoln Precinct, Clark County, WA, taken April, HH#35/37:
H. C. Lyle, age 40, married since he was 20, born ?hard to read. He is a farmer. Cora, age 40, married since she was 20, born OH to parents born OH/ME. Children with them are Carl F., age 16, born CA and Hazel P., age 15, born CA.

So this indicates Hazel had a brother. Did you know that already?

Will e-mail you again tonight if I find anything. Dancing with the Stars is on tonight and it's one of my "Must See's" --Ilene

Dear Ilene,
We did not find the marriage record for Mary Asenath Peabody and Edward Popejoy Conner. You may want to try Clinton County.

Just this last and then I'm off to take my bath and call it a day.

What we know about Hazel: Her dad's first name was Orin. According to the second letter, Orin and Edward's sister went to live in Portland, OR. Portland's in Multnomah county. I looked there for anyone named Orin, Oren, Oran, Oron, did not find anyone who had several children and was approximately the same age as James (according to comments made in second letter).

I did find a couple Orin or Orens in other parts of the country who had a wife named Cora (close enough to Corinne?), but nothing I could pin my hat on. Just wishful thinking. Of course it's always possible Corinne went by a middle name later in life, and since we don't know what her middle name was, we are between a rock and a hard place in making a connection. She could've even changed her name completely -- I've seen that done several times, I'm sure you have too.

There were lots of Hazels in Shasta County but none within a few pages on Edward on the census. There's an Orin C. Preston 5 pages away from Edward with a wife named Ann, but she only has one living child, 2 total. And born MO, mother not born ME.

I've looked in 1910 for anyone born ca 1869 to a father born OH and a mother born ME. Corinne was born OH according to the KS census, but she was only 1 then and might think later on she was born KS so I checked that out. I didn't see anything I could connect to.

But maybe you will. I've been on my computer all day so probably wouldn't see something if it reached out and bit me at this point.

Here's a transcription of that census I told you about re Mary Asenath (Peabody) Collins:
1870 Oskaloosa, Grasshopper Falls Twp., Jefferson County, KS, taken June 15, at HH#242/254, Mary Conner, age 25, born ME. She is keeping house and has household goods in the amount of $200. She has a one-year-old daughter, Corinne, born OH. Mary's mother is foreign-born. Also in the household is Mary W. Peabody, age 41, "living with daughter", born New Brunswick, her mother foreign-born. On the previous census (1860), both Marys were living with the rest of their Peabody family in Franklin County, IA, headed by Aaron Peabody. Mary had two brothers, Aaron Filmore Peabody (my great-grandfather) and Albion Perley Peabody (Perley being his grandmother's maiden name). There was another sister, Kate Pauline, but she died in 1862 (born in 1860).

In 1890 when Aaron Peabody applied for his soldier's pension, he stated that Aaron Filmore and Albion Perley were his only children still living, so Mary must've been deceased by then.

Good luck, hope you find something! --Ilene

Well, you're pretty resourceful!

I don't know what to think about Carl now. I'll go back and look at that census again. I was sure it said "son". And usually if it's a hired hand he would've been listed AFTER Hazel rather than before, even though he was a year older than her. It's possible the enumerator was confused and thought the hired hand was a son???

I didn't find anything yet to indicate that Mary A. married after 1870. I've put in a marriage information request to a guy in Franklin County, Iowa who does look-ups. He answered me that he would be driving into town in a few days and would put it on his list.

Since you have marriage records for Fayette County, I'm assuming you've already looked there for a marriage between him and anyone. I just find it so strange that the mothers of both his children were consistently reported born in Maine. It nags at me, you know?

I got a rather terse answer back from Victor Hillard that he had no further information. So much for the spirit of genealogy that I so enjoy. I wonder why he would even bother to post if he didn't want to hear from others researching his line.

I'm going to dink around a little on my computer, I'll let you know if I find anything. --Ilene

This family is just full of surprises.

1930 Federal census of District 67, Union Twp., Jackson County, OR, page 83, taken Apr 25-26, HH#56: Horace C. Lyle, living alone, age 61, married when he was 21, born Nova Scotia, farmer, general farm. Wonder where Clorinda Corinne is?
also found that Iowa did have a state census, but apparently nothing on-line except 1856. Mary A. was in Canaan, Cerro Gordo County, IA, age 11, with her Peabody family. If we could see Iowa state census for 1866, it might tell us if Mary A. is still with her family, which would disprove the 1864 marriage thing.

I give up for tonight.

Yep, an obit for both might answer the question of the 16-year-old boy living with them in 1910 -- or not. It's worth a try.

I have to share this with you. I answered Mr. Victor Hillard's e-mail and told him that I was a Peabody descendant and knew lineage of Clorinda's mother, and that I was in contact with a great-niece of Edward's who could probably provide his lineage. Then I thanked him for posting what he had posted on Rootsweb and said that it helped me quite a bit.

So this morning I had a very friendly e-mail from him, (quite a turnaround) providing information (but only that which was already posted on Rootsweb -- how dumb does he think other people are???). He didn't come out and ask for anything, but I'll bet he will when I don't answer him. And I'm not going to. I'm feeling evil. If he wants to he can go to Rootsweb and get most of that information, anyway. So let him work a little for it. (snort!)

Hey, I don't have a picture of Mary Asenath, but I have a couple of pictures of her siblings. Would you like me to e-mail you those? Can you open a .jpg? Would you be interested in further information about the Peabody family? I'd like to have a .jpg of Edward if you can do it.

I don't think I told you that the Peabody family were very musically inclined. They loved to sing, dance and play instruments. Every child of Aaron Filmore Peabody (Mary's brother) played at least one instrument (the violin), and some played more than that. My grandmother Susie, who was one of his children, played the violin and the piano, and so did all four of her daughters. They were too poor to be buying sheet music and Van wouldn't have allowed money to be spent on such a frivolous thing, anyway, so she played "by ear". Back when my mother was a child, there would be dances every weekend at someone's house or in a barn. Susie was always asked to play the "fiddle", and sometimes her girls played in the "band" after they got older. My mom met my dad at one of those dances. But anyway, when you were talking about Hazel having quite a lot of musical ability, I thought how appropriate that was. Me, I inherited some of the singing, but I'm not an accomplished player of any instrument, though I did try. I just didn't inherit that talent. My mother loved music as well. She played the piano quite well and later in life bought an organ and was just fascinated by all the different instrument sounds it could make. She also played the violin, but when I was a teenager, she pinched off her left pinkie finger in a wooden lawn chair that folded up on her when she sat down in it. (she was yelling at me at the time and plopped herself down in that chair as an exclamation point. It turned out to be a lot more dramatic than she meant it to be! Anyway, the end of that finger was so tender from then on, she could not finger the strings, and didn't play the violin again.

I'm going to look over my records and see if there's something I can look for tonight. Will let you know if I find anything. --Ilene

In a message dated 11/3/2007 8:43:10 AM Central Daylight Time,
Yeah, I found a Mary Conner in Missouri on the 1880 census, don't remember now what county, it was not one I'd worked with before, but her age was wrong and she was born KY. She did have a daughter named Cora with her in her household, too, but Cora wasn't born OH. I guess there's always a chance that could've been them, and maybe the census information was given by a neighbor, who wouldn't necessarily have had the right information. That happened in my Peabody family on the 1910 census in Texas County, MO. But I don't know where Mary's mother was in 1880, either. She isn't with her husband, Aaron, who is with his son Aaron P., and he lists his marital status as "married" rather than "divorced". I'm thinking both Marys and Cora are somewhere together in 1880. But I've searched for a Mary Peabody in 1880 to no avail. And I've searched nine ways to Sunday for Cora/Clorinda/Corinne/any last name and any child last name Conner or soundex. One of Ben Peabody's descendants told me both Mary (the mother) and Aaron, (her husband) are buried on the family farm at Cabool, MO. But there again, I don't know if this can be proven.

I still haven't heard from this guy Don in Jefferson County, KS.

The Orrin mentioned in the letters of Edward Popejoy Conner is my grandfather, Orrin Ometa Mitchem. Orrin's mother was Ella Ann Conner (sister to Edward P.) and she married William Harrison Mitchem.
Go to Rootsweb and look at the posting by Victor Hillard, Jr. pertaining to Clorinda Corinne Conner, dau of Edward Popejoy Conner. The CA death record seems to confirm some of his info.

1900 Census / Hawaiian Islands / Honolulu / Island of Oahu / page 301 B
Horrace Lyle age 31, born Aug 1868, married 10 yrs, born ??
Cora Lyle, age 30, born Nov 1869, married 10 yrs, born America
Hazel Lyle, age 5, born ?? 1895 in America
Note: Cora is the mother of one child and one child living.

Since the 1910 census shows Carl, in the family as a son, is he adopted ???. Cora in 1900 states that she is the mother of one child with one child living.

I knew that Edward had not married in Fayette Co. because I have the marriage records, so he must have married in Iowa........someplace.

Think the place of birth of Horace on the 1910 census is Canada (CAN).

> The 1864 marriage date was given to me by the Peabody family somewhere along the line, I guess James' death information saying his mother's last name was Simmons is a good clue that maybe Mary Asenath wasn't his mother. And then that would make the marriage date wrong, too, because he wasn't born till 1866. But isn't it strange that both Mary Asenath and this Simmons wife were born Maine!

I have the Franklin Co. IA marriage book and I found no marriage for Edward and Mary (and none for any Peabody).
A terse genealogist is a poor genealogist. Old Vic probably posted some other person's research........that is ugly.
Have spent the day, off and on, searching for these people and am amazed that I cannot find much of anything.
The census showing a son, Fred, does not indicate anything else but that he was their son.

And usually if it's a hired hand he would've been listed AFTER Hazel rather than before, even though he was a year older than her. It's possible the enumerator was confused and thought the hired hand was a son???

Found the following on the Stanislaus Co. CA Genealogical Society site:

MODESTO CITIZENS' CEMETERY

Cora C. Lyle
born / 1869 / Jeffersonville, Ohio died / 8 Oct 1946 / Modesto, CA age / 76 years, 10 months, 22 days

Horace C. Lyle
born / 1869
died / 14 Jan 1932 / Alameda, CA age / 63 years

I have contacted the Stanislaus Genealogical Society to see how I might obtain obituaries.

If we could see Iowa state census for 1866, it might tell us if Mary A. is still with her family, which would disprove the 1864 marriage thing.

Interesting info from Fayette Co. The tax record for Mary could well be Mary Peabody Conner. I looked up the 1870 census for the Mary Conner. Not her, for that Mary was only 14 years old. Guess we need to keep looking.

Did you find a marriage record of him and anyone else, specifically a woman by the last name of Simmons? Apparently one of Edward's children was born to this woman, about 1866. Edward lived in Jeffersonville, Jefferson Twp. during this time period.

Dear Mrs. Nunneley:

In your letter of 16 June 1986 you requested information on Sarah Conner, specifically trying to prove that she was the mother of one James Conner who died in Greene County in 1870.

An examination of the probate records yielded nothing on Sarah Conner in the form of a will or estate. A search of the common pleas court records did not yield any information either.

There are no grantee or grantor deeds for Sarah Conner in Fayette County. James Conner, however, purchased land in survey 1271 in 1821. He sold this land, at least 50 acres on it, in 1829. It wasn't until 1858 that he sold the other 50 acres, this time with 47 acres that he had purchased in 1830.

This survey 1271 is the same one that Sarah is listed on from at least 1827 to 1830 on the tax list.

James

1821 bought 100a s. 1271

1827 - (at least) 1836 paid taxes on 50 a., s. 1271

1829 sold 50 a.,s. 1271

1830 bought 47a., s. 1267

1858 sold 97a. (50 in 1271 and 47 in 12670

Sarah

1827 - 1832 paid taxes on s. 1271 - 50 a.

My theory is that James gave, leased, or rented 50 acres of land to his mother, Sarah. Perhaps when she got too old, she went to live with her son. Please remember that tax lists are for the year previous. Although this is not proof, it does have some merit.

Do you know that Sherwood Conner in Heath, Ohio, I believe,is also related to these Conners? I will be happy to send his address if you don't have it.

Sorry I don't have proof of the relationship, but I just haven't been able to find anything. If I can be of further help, please let me know.

The research took 3 1/2 hours at $7.50 for a total of $26.25 plus $3 for copies of deeds - minus your deposit of $15.00, which leaves a balance due of $14.25. (I had trouble locating the final deed where James sold the 97 acres.) At check at your convenience would be appreciated.

Sincerely,

Descendants of the Jeffries Family
By William Baker

Isaac Jeffries, the progenitor, lived in Pleasanton, Decatur County, Iowa and is buried near there. Andrew Jack Jeffries' descendants lived in Decatur County, Iowa, at least at one time. I include information on his siblings, even though they did not move to Iowa. The lines I share with the Jeffries are the Fents, Parretts and Ruperts

Generation No. 1

1. ISAAC1 JEFFERS was born 1790 in Virginia, and died Bef. 1870 in Home of A. J. Jefferies, Clay Township, Harrison County, Missouri. He married MARY NANCY FENT 1816 in Fayette County, Ohio, daughter of PHILLIP FENT and MARY PARRETT.

Notes for ISAAC JEFFERS:
HISTORY OF ISAAC JEFFRIES -- Isaac was born in 1790 in Virginia. Isaac Jeffries came to Ohio from Virginia with his father as a young man. He was a farmer in Jefferson Township, near Jeffersonville, until 1858. In 1816 he married Mary Nancy Fent, daughter of Revolutionary War soldier, Phillip Fent (Faint). Nancy and Isaac were the parents of 10 children. Only 4 were supposed to have been living in 1888. I can only account for 8 and possibly 9 children.

Nancy (Fent) Jeffries tombstone shows she was born in 1781. This has to be an error on the monument company who put the date on the tombstone or an error made by a member of the family. If she was born in 1781, this would have made her over 49 years of age when her 4th child was born. There were at least four more children born after her 4th child, Andrew Jackson. According to the U.S. census of Fayette Co, Ohio, Harrison Co., Missouri and McLean Co., Ill., she would have been born about 1791.

In the 1850's, his son, Andrew Jackson Jeffries, temporarily took over Isaac's farm in Ohio, perhaps Isaac being sick or injured or simply too old to bear the strenuous work of farming. In 1858 Isaac and Nancy went to Clay Township, Harrison County, Missouri to make their home with their son Andrew Jackson Jeffries and his family. Issac died near Pleasanton, Decatur County, Iowa at the home of his son A. J. Jefferies.

After Isaac's death, Nancy remained in Missouri for a short while, then she returned to Fayette County, Ohio to make her home with her daughter Mary and husband Amos Hyre (Ames Hire). In March the Hyre's removed to Cheney Grove Township in McLean County, Illinois and Nancy went with them. Isaac was buried in Mercer County Missouri, just south of Pleasanton, Iowa in one of the folowing cemeteries: Akron Cemetery (near Cainsville, Mercer County, MO), Bethel Methodist Cemetery (near Pleasanton, Decatur County, IA), or South Pleasanton Cemetery (near Pleasanton, Decatur County, IA.). Nancy was buried in McClean County, Illinois.

Notes for MARY NANCY FENT:
Mary Fent was born in 1791 in Green County, Tennessee (which later became Cocke County, Tennessee). She was the daughter of Peter Phillip Fent, Jr. (Faent, Fann) a Revolutionary War soldier, and Mary Catherine Parrett, (who was the daughter of Frederick Parrett and Barbara Edwards). Mary, (otherwise known as Nancy), married Isaac Jeffries in Ohio in 1816. Isaac and Nancy farmed in Jefferson Township, Fayette County, Ohio until 1858 when they went to Harrison County, Missouri to make their home with their son Andrew Jackson Jeffries and his family. After Isaac's death Nancy remained in Clay Township, Harrison County, Missouri as short while, then she went back to Fayette County to make her home with her daughter Mary and her husband Amos Hyre. She then accompanied her daughter and husband (the Hyres) to McLean County, Illinois. She was buried in McClean County, Illinois. BD is from Fayette County, Ohio Census & Harrison County, Missouri Census & McLean County, Illinois.

Children of ISAAC JEFFERS and MARY FENT are:

Notes for ANDREW JACKSON JEFFRIES:

History of ANDREW JACKSON JEFFRIES -- Andrew Jack was born in 1832 in Jefferson Township, Fayette County, Ohio to Isaac Jeffries and Mary N. Fent (daughter of Phillip Fent). In late 1848, at the age of 16 he managed his father Isaac's farm in Fayette County, Ohio, then in 1850 he moved to California, spending two years. It's thought that he was trying his hand at the 'gold rush'.

"A.J." returned in 1852 to Ohio. He married Minerva Rupert on August 22, 1854 in Fayette County, Ohio. He and Minerva were first cousins on the Fents side. She was the daughter of William Henry Rupert and Rachel Fent, and a niece of his mother's. She was born in 1831 in Fayette County, Ohio and died in 1894 in Clay Township, Harrison County, Missouri.

In 1854 he settled in Harrison County, Missouri where he was a very early settler, rising to become Clay Township, Harrison County, Missouri's largest landowner and farmer. He owned much of what was termed the Grand River Bottoms between Mercer, Missouri and Davis City, Iowa. He owned land in the three county area of Harrison and Mercer Counties, Missouri and Decatur County, Iowa. His son Isaac inherited most of it. Isaac had a son named Willard that was a doctor that lived in Davis City, Iowa.

In the 1910 and 1920 Pleasanton, Hamilton Township, Decatur County, Iowa Cenuses he is listed as living in the village of Pleasanton, Iowa with his daughter Minnie and her husband Sebastion C. Davis, and children. They lived next door to the Cornett Family.

Andrew died just before 1930 in or around Leon, Decatur County, Iowa, in a nursing home. He was close to 100 Years old. Other family records have stated a DD as 1920, however, there are people living who actually talked to A. J. Jeffries in the latter 1920's, plus he is in the Census for that year. The 1920 date in people's files seems to come from the fact he is last seen listed on the 1920 census. He is sketched in the book, "The History of Harrison County, Missouri" by the Harrison County Historical Society. Andrew is buried in a Cemetery south of the little village of Pleasanton, Iowa. As far as I know he does not have a stone, or it is indecipherable or has fallen down.

There is a biography write-up for him in the book, "History of Harrison and Mercer Counties, Missouri". The book also reported an alternate MD for Andrew of November 07, 1852.

"A.J." returned in 1852 to Ohio. He married Minerva Rupert on August 22, 1854 in Fayette County, Ohio. He and Minerva were first cousins on the Fents side. She was the daughter of William Henry Rupert and Rachel Fent, and a niece of his mother's. She was born in 1831 in Fayette County, Ohio and died in 1894 in Clay Township, Harrison County, Missouri.

Notes for MINERVA RUPERT, Indian Legends:
Minerva married a cousin. She was a daughter of Rachel Fent and William Henry Rupert. Rachel Fent was the grandaughter of Phillip Fent. Andrew's mother was the daughter of Phillip Fent.

Minerva's father William Henry Rupert was the son of George Ludwig Rupert II (Revolutionary War Veteran) and Elizabeth Pursley. Minerva's grandmother Elizabeth Pursley had been captured by Shawnee Indians at Ruddles Fort, Kentucky on June 24, 1780. Elizabeth Pursley was in captivity for 3 years. Elizabeth's parents had been scalped. This is the true basis for the 'Indian legends' that were in the Jeffries families and allied families for years. The legends were told by Andrew Jack in his old age as, "the family was part Indian". It is thought that either a little embellishment was going on or Andrew was getting senile in his old age. The relatives never really came around to ask him about the family history until he was already up into his 90's, past probable senility. Andrew knew Elizabeth Pursley, his bride's Grandmother, who died in 1857, very well. The Jeffries Family still emphatically claims Indian descent, despite no viable proof for it, at least none this researcher can find.

Since you submitted information on John Garrison (son of Isaac and Elizabeth Ellis Garrison) married #1 Ann R. Cramer (Ann R. Creamer - dau of Michael and Matilda Conner Creamer from Fayette Co. OH), I thought you might be from that line. Just wanted to send additional and correct information on the line, but since it is not your line........sure you are not interested.
Thanks much for the reply.

<< She submitted material to Ancestral File on the John Garrison family of Wayne Co. IL. Are you the submitter? >>

Yes I am Theresa. What can I do for you? My direct Garrison line is that of James Garrison m. Hester Roberts, father of Samuel Garrison m. Martha Conlee, father of Isacc Garrison m. Elizabeth Ellis, father of Matilda Garrison m. Benjamin Scott.

If your line is not my direct family line above, then I do not have any more information than what is listed on the Ancestral File. I submitted my full disk for inclusion to the Ancestral File, but have not done research on anyone other than my own direct line.

John T. KURR

John T. KURR was united in marriage to Sarah A. CREAMER Dec. 24, 1867, by the Rev. R. B. HENRY. To this union were born five children. Mary Matilda, Ella Ann, William Cyrus, Mattie May and John Thos., Jr. The oldest was married to C.V. GOLDEN. She died Feb. 26, 1907, in her 39th year, leaving on son, Albert Owen GOLDEN.

Bro. Kurr was of Presbyterian parentage and was baptized by the Rev. LINEBAUCH May 5, 1842. He became a member of that church and continued to be until 1868, when he united with the Methodist Episcopal church at Foster schoolhouse under the pastorate of the Rev. R. H. MASSEY. He later became one of the charter members at Golden and also one of the original Board of Trustees of the same church, which position he held to the close of his life. When the first church building was struck by lightning and burned July 4, 1912, Bro. KURR became very active in the work of rebuilding both with labor and money.

Bro. KURR loved his family. He was a devoted husband, a loving father, a trusted friend, a kind neighbor, a safe counselor, a true patriot and an earnest Christian.

Bro. KURR's last illness was one that affected the heart and caused him to be confined to the house for [rest of text missing]

Date of Death: June 28, 1937

Clarence V. GOLDEN

Clarence V. GOLDEN, son of Stephen J. and Laura C. GOLDEN was born near Flora, Illinois on April 12, 1867. Departed this life June 28, 1937 at the age of 70 years, two months and 16 days. He was the oldest of five children. His father, mother, two brothers, one daughter and one grandson have preceded him in death.

In his early manhood he helped on his father's farm and from this early training chose farming as his vocation. In the year 1899 he united with the Christian church at Oak Mound, under the ministry of Rev. J. A. BATTENFIELD and retained his membership there until his death. On December 25, 1900 he was united in marriage to Mary M. KURR and to this union one son, Albert, was born. She departed this life on February 26, 1907. On September 7, 1910, he united in marriage to Iva M. VAUGHAN and for 27 years they traveled life's pathways together. On November 21, 1916 a daughter, Mildred Evalena, was born, dying at birth. He leaves to mourn his passing, his wife, Iva, his son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Albert GOLDEN, five grandchildren, Rex Dale, Kenneth Eugene, Donald Wayne, Jo Ann, and Gerald Mac GOLDEN; one sister, Clara FRIEND; and one brother, N. O. GOLDEN, all of Flora.

All that medical aid and loving hands could do, was done for him, but the summons came for him and he responded with the implicit faith that his mission here was finished and he was going home.

Card Of Thanks

We wish to acknowledge with sincere appreciation the many acts of kindness and sympathy extended to us during the illness and death of our beloved husband and father, Clarence V. GOLDEN. We wish to especially thank the minister, Rev. C. L. DOTY; the pall bearers, those who sent flower and all other who in any way assisted during our bereavement.

Name of Deceased: C.S. CRABTREE

Date of Obituary: unknown
Date of Death: Aug. 14, 1902

C.S. CRABTREE

"God giveth and God taketh away; blessed is his name." Elder C. S. CRABTREE was born at Maple Grove, Ill., Jan. 8th, 1850; departed this life at his home in Stanford township, Clay County, Ill., Aug. 14, 1902, aged 52 years, 7 months, and 6 days. He was joined in holy wedlock with Miss Rachel ALBERT Jan. 12, 1871, with whom he lived very happily until death. To this union seven children were born. Two preceded their father to the great beyond. Thus death comes and robs us of our loved ones and our eyes and our homes are filled with weeping. And though we see him here no more we hope to meet him on the other shore.

Eld. C. S. CRABTREE's great-great-grandfather MADDING came from Wales in the year 1737. He was a Baptist preacher and took part in a business meeting in the ship while crossing the ocean, and settled in Halifax county, Va.

Bro. CRABTREE professed faith in Christ in his nineteenth year and joined the Macedonia Baptist church. He was licensed to preach in 1884, and ordained to the gospel ministry by the above named church in 1885. He spent seventy years in the ministry. [note that this conflicts with his age of 52]. He was a faithful, earnest worker in the service of the Master. A good man has departed, a brave, faithful servant of Jesus Christ. His influence was a benediction. In his death the church, the Sunday school, his family and this community have suffered a great loss,

Subject: Re: GUERRETTAZ, GARRETTE, SLADE OF CLAY CO, ILLINOIS
Author: Bonnie Green
Date: 20 Oct 2001 9:05 PM GMT
Email: pgreen9347@aol.com

Joseph Marie and Marie A. (Usannaz) Guerrettaz came to the U. S. after 1851 from Southwestern France. Another family researcher in my branch found this French marrige date for them 20 Sept 1835. Children, all of them born in France: Alexis Guerrattaz (whose name eventually came to be spelled Garrette) b. abt 1837, d. aft 1882 near Redford, Reynolds County, MO, m. Mary L. Slade at Louisville, Clay County, IL; Commelles J.; Callest Vestal; Andrew; John M.; and Anthony. Have some birth and death dates for the five younger sons. At least one of the sons may have gone over the Oregon Trail. Reply to: pgreen9347@aol.com (Bonnie).

George Sylvester Garrette

By George E. Garrette

George Sylvester Garrette, born 13 Oct. 1900 in Mena, Polk Co., Ark., the son of John Lewis and Emma Edna (Cockrell) Garrette. In 1904, he, his parents, two older brothers (Spurgeon and Loyd) and a baby sister (Mary) came to southern Pottawatomie Co. in a covered wagon, settling in the King school district, which is located southeast of Wanette. George's maternal grandparents were living in the same area at this time. They were George S. and Malinda Catherine (Snapp) Cockrell.

George attended school at King school until about 1911, at which time his father purchased 84 acres of land about 1 and ½ miles east of the old Boyer schoolhouse and not far from Scrougeout school. George dropped out of school for two or three years and later returned to finish his grade school work at Boyer school, finishing his last ½ year after he was married. A few years after 1911, the farm that his father had bought was almost totally washed away by the flooding and direction change of the South Canadian river channel. Following this disaster George's father bought about 70 acres in Sect. 3, T 5 N, R 3 E, which is 1 mile south and ¼ mile east of Boyer school. It was on this farm that George and his brothers and sisters grew to adulthood.

In 1921 George married Anna Bell Koehler at the home of his parents, the wedding being performed by Spurgeon E. Garrett who was the older brother of George. Spurgeon was a Methodist Minister from Paden, Okla. Anna's parents were Carl August and Susan Elizabeth (Lizzie) Koehler who lived about two miles west of Wanette. After finishing school in the spring of 1922, George and Anna moved to Micawber, Okla. which is about 12 miles north of Paden in Okfuskee Co. In 1923 they moved back to Wanette, staying for a short time with August and Lizzie Koehler. Most of 1924 they lived west of Wanette in three or four different places, living with George's brother and family (Loyd and Bertie Garrett). In the late fall of 1924 they moved to Bradley, Oklahoma, spring of 1925 to Lindsay, Okla. and later to Chickasha, Okla. In the fall of 1925 they moved to Plainview, Texas and later to the Wellington, Texas area where they picked cotton through that winter. In 1926 they moved back to Wanette where George worked at the cotton gin and picked cotton.

In 1927 George and Anna moved to Pharoah, Okfuskee Co. Okla. where George worked in the oil field. In 1928 George moved again, this time to Oklahoma City, on S. W. Chickasaw Street. In Nov. 1928 George moved again, to S. W. 34th Street in Oklahoma City. While living here George and a business partner went into the flavoring business; their business location was in the 500 block on North Hudson Street in Oklahoma City. Their business seemed to flourish for a while, then like most small businesses in the depression time of 1929 and early thirties, they had to close up. In the spring of 1930 George and family moved to Bixby, Okla., living there only a short time before moving back to the farm that he had grown up on. His father John Lewis Garrette had retired from farming. George and Anna farmed this land for the next ten years.

The seven children of George and Anna are as follows: George Edwin, born 25 Sept. 1922 near Micawber, Okla., married Rachel D. Hervey. Anita Jean, born 11 Nov. 1923 at Wanette, Okla., married W. A. Smith. Doris Violet, born 28 Oct. 1926 in Wanette, Okla., married Tony Graziano, James Henry (Jack), born 17 Jan. 1929 in Oklahoma City, Okla., married Katherine DeVore. Elnora Elizabeth, born 12 Feb. 1935 near Wanette, Okla., married Kennneth L. Barnes. Norman Gale, born 4 Jan. 1937 near Wanette, Okla., died 17 Jan. 1937. Edna Ruth, born 30 April 1938 near Wanette Okla., married Charles Orr who died in 1968. Edna Ruth then married Earl Harley Carroll.

In December of 1940 this family moved back to Oklahoma City, where George was employed by the State Highway Department. George S. died 25 Aug. 1964 and is buried in Resthaven cemetery at 104th and South Western, Oklahoma City, Okla. His wife Anna lives in the Shartel Towers Apts. in Oklahoma City. Six of the children in this family are still living.

paternal grandparents were Joseph Marie Guerrettaz and Marie Antoinette (Gisannaz) Guerrettaz. John's maternal grandparents were Eliza and James A. Slade. Joseph and Marie A. (Gisannaz) Guerrettaz along with their six sons came to St. Clair Co., Ill., in 1852 from Savoy (Savoie) Province of France, settling about four miles east and one mile south of Mascoutah, Ill. in St. Clair Co. Joseph Marie Guerrettaz, born 1 Oct. 1811 in France, died 19 Dec. 1872 in Clay Co. Ill. and Marie Antoinette (Gisannaz) Guerrettaz, born 2 Nov. 1812 in France, died 14 April 1883 in Clay Co. Ill. They were married in Savoy Province of France on the 29th day of Sept. 1835, both are buried in St. Stephens Catholic Cemetery, about two miles south of Flora, Ill. On the 15th of Jan. 1853 Joseph and Marie bought 80 acres of rich fertile black land about five miles from Mascoutah, St. Clair Co., Ill. After about 11 years passed this family sold out and moved to Clay Co. Ill., where Joseph M. Guerrettaz, on 30 Sept. 1863 purchased 160 acres of rich fertile land about five and ½ miles west of Louisville, Ill. Most of this family lived and died near this land.

Alexis Guerrettaz the eldest of the six sons of Joseph and Marie Guerrettaz, was united in marriage to Mary L. Slade 16 June 1862. On 9 August 1862 Alexis Guerrettaz purchased 40 acres of land in Sec. 7, T 3 N, R 7 E, this land being about three mile northwest of Oskaloosa, Clay Co., Ill. The subject of this family history, John Lewis Garrette was born on this land in 1867. The Alexis Guerrettaz family lived on this land until disposing of it in the spring of 1870 and moving to Reynolds Co., Missouri, this being near Mary's people, the Slade family. From 1870 until the time of his death in 1882 Alexis and his family lived in Reynolds Co., MO. During these 12 years Alexis had purchased 480 acres of land near the small town of Reford, MO., in Reynolds Co.

John Lewis Garrette, at the age of 15 had the misfortune of having his father die, his father was only 45 years old at the time of death. John's mother, Mary, was only 36 years old and the mother of nine children, as follows: Mariah E. (Ellie) born 1866, John Lewis, born 7 Aug. 1867, Lucy L., born about 1869 or 70, Isabelle May (Bell) born 1871, Julian Edwin, born 1872, James Wesley (Jim) born 1876, Joseph Silvester (Sib) born 1877, Mary J. (Josie) born 1879, and Irvin Frank, born in 1881.

Sometime after the death of Alexis Guerrettaz in 1882, we notice that this family began to use the anglicized version of the Guerrettaz name, which is Garrette.

John Lewis Garrette, through no choosing of his own, at the age of 15 had to become provider and leader in helping his mother raise nine children, ranging in ages from seven months to 16 years. This family continued to live in Reynolds Co. for a few years until the late 1880's, at this time the family lived near Seligman, MO. for a while, then they moved to Madison Co. Arkansas. In the mid and late 1890's this family started marrying off and starting families of their own in western Arkansas. Most of this family moved to east and central Oklahoma before Statehood. John Lewis and his brothers worked at building railroads in Missouri and Arkansas. It was along one of these railroads that John Lewis met and married Emma Edna Cockrell, near St. Paul in Madison Co. Ark. They were married 15 July 1894 in the Augdon Baptist Church which is about six miles north of St. Paul, Ark. In 1900 we find this family in Mena, Polk Co. Arkansas. In about 1904 this family came by covered wagon to southern Pottawatomie Co, settling in the King School District, which is located southeast of Wanette. The mother and father-in-law of John Lewis lived in the same area in 1904. They were George S. and Malinda Catherine (Snapp) Cockrell. About 1911 John Lewis bought 84 acres of land, located 4 and ½ miles east of Wanette or 1 and ½ miles east of the old Boyer schoolhouse, in Section 26. (S ½ of SE ¼) plus 4 acres in Section 35. A few years later this bottom land farm was almost totally washed away by the flooding and direction change of the South Canadian river channel. Following this disaster John Lewis bought about 70 acres in Sect. 3, T 5 N, R 3 E, which is 1 mile south and ¼ mile east of Boyer school. John Lewis and Edna lived on this land until the late 1920's, when they moved to 520 South Kickapoo Street in Shawnee, Okla., where they both lived the rest of their lives. John Lewis died 23 Aug. 1931 and Edna died 17 Sept. 1957, both are buried in the Wanette cemetery. The children of John and Edna are: Spurgeon born 23 July 1895 in Madison Co. Ark., Loyd born 19 May 1897 in Crawford Co. Ark., George Sylvester born 13 Oct. 1900 in Mena, Polk Co. Ark., Mary born 4 Sept. 1902 in Scott Co. Ark., James F. (Jim) born 17 June 1905 near Wanette, Ruth born 6 Sept. 1907 near Wanette, Isabell born 26 Aug. 1909 near Wanette, Mildred born 11 Sept. 1911 near Wanette. Spurgeon married Sarah Ellen Boteler, Loyd married Alberta (Berta) Boggs, George Sylvester married Anna Bell Koehler, Mary married Leslie French, Jim married Edna Francis Clark, Ruth died at age 7 years, 7 months and 11 days, Isabell married Ernest Gore Coleman and Mildred married Floyd Edmond Davis.

Gentry Family

By Mike Gentry

This history of the Gentry family in Pott. Co., was obtained from conversations with my parents, Bill and Wynona Gentry of Tecumseh, as well as my own memories and recollections of events and people.

My father's parents were Dee Gentry, who was born near Ardmore in 1883, and Emma Madison, born in Eastland Co., Texas in 1884. They married in Eastland Co., in 1902, and my father was born there in 1904. They named him Cecil Onis, but he has used his nickname of "Bill", virtually all of his life. My Dad had a brother, Fred, who died in 1907.

Dad's family moved to Brownwood, Texas in 1906, where my grandfather worked as jailer and deputy Sheriff. I still have his brass knuckles and a holster with a "D" carved on it that he used on those jobs. The family moved to Muscle Shoals, Alabama in 1918 where my grandfather took a job in a "Nitro" plant which made ammunition for our forces in World War I. After the war they moved to Cisco, Texas and my grandfather went to work for Hickcock's Trucking Co.

Bill, Wynona and Mike in front of apartment at 603 North Market in Shawnee in early 1940's. We lived here from 1936 - 1965.

My mother's parents were Samuel Elliott, born in Buffalo, Kansas in 1866 and Dorothy Dunmire, born in Lawrenceburg, Indiana in 1873. They married and moved to Chelsea, Oklahoma in 1906. My mother, Wynona, was born in Chelsea in 1907 in Indian Territory. Other children were Earl, killed in a train accident in Chelsea in 1948 and Madge, who died in Arizona in 1984.

Grandpa Elliott operated the Star Auto Agency in Chelsea, the foundation of which still stands. He also had the first car in Chelsea, a Metz. He was very active in the early day Chelsea oil fields, working as a drilling contractor. The family also operated a movie theatre in Chelsea.

The McSpadden family, relatives of Will Rogers, lived across the street from my mother in Chelsea. Grandpa Elliott died in Chelsea in 1934 and Grandma Elliott died in Oklahoma City in 1963.

My dad's family moved from Cisco, Texas to Duncan, Oklahoma in 1921 where my dad graduated from High School in 1923. My gandfather went to work for Magnolia Oil Co. My mother and dad met when Mother went to Duncan to visit her sister, and they were married in Duncan, July 31, 1925.

Mother and Dad moved to Asher from Duncan to live with Dad's folks in 1928. Dad and Grandpa Gentry worked on a highway construction job south of Asher. Dad worked on the cement dock, and Grandpa Gentry drove a dump truck hauling cement mix.

My folks and grandparents moved to Tecumseh in 1929, and in 1930 my brother, Bobby Joe was born in Dunbeing about three miles northwest of Casanova, Clay Co. Mo. Edward and his son, James G. Conner owned and were involved in many mining adventures in Shasta Co. from the late 1880s until their deaths.

Your help will certainly be appreciated. Let me know what the charge for these two obituaries might be. Also, can you please inform me where I might find wills or probates for both men in Shasta County.

Thanks much,

Mrs. Ella Fitch
Dear Sister: -

Your favor of sometime since duly to hand. My daughter and her daughter Hazel arrived here about a month ago from Honolulu. My daughters health compelled her to leave the Islands. She had a terrible cough and could not get rid of it. She has improved greatly since her arrival here and by going up to some springs about 50 miles from here, I expect she will get entirely well. I leave in a few days to go part of the way & fix up for them to go into camp with me. We shall spend the Summer in the mountains so if I get to the St. Louis Exposition, it will be in Sept. or Oct.
I have a big Summers work laid out and shall be very busy, but by Sept. hope to have a month or two of leisure. My daughter will remain here permanently, Her husband will join her here in a month or two.
We have written to Florence Conner to join us in our mountain camp through the Summer and she may come. If she should come, she may remain through the winter and teach a term of school.
Jas. G. says he wishes you would send one of those corn fed Mo. girls out here and have her bring a car load of pumpkins so she can feed him on pumpkin pie.
Thanks for the papers. All mail addressed to Redding will reach me. Hope your health has improved ere this.
We did not have a flake of snow this winter. Hills & mountains covered with wild flowers & green grass. Your affectionate Brother

Dear Sister:-

I have a big Summer's work laid out, and shall be very busy, but by Sept. hope to have a month or two of leisure, My daughter will remain here permanently, Her husband will join her here in a month or two.

We have written to Florence Comer to join us in our mountain camp through the Summer, and she may come. If she should come, she may remain through the winter and teach a term of school.

Jas. G. says he wishes you would send one of those corn fed Mo. girls out here and have her bring a car load of pumpkins, so she can feed him on pumpkin pie.

Thanks for the papers, All mail addressed to Redding will reach me, Hope your health has improved ere this. We did not have a flake of snow this winter, Hills & mountains covered with wild flowers & green grass. Your affectionate brother

Dear Sister:-

Yours of sometime since came duly to hand and contents noted. We have had a fine winter, green grass, since Dec. mixed with some wild flowers and roses. I got home 5th of Jan. during my trip to the mountains. I rode 115 miles horseback over snow and ice. After my arrival home, I took to a rocking chair and a pillow. I have been very busy since getting our various camps in readiness for the seasons boom which is now putting in interesting signs of an early comming. We hope to sell a camp or two this year and thereafter take life a little less "strenious". I received two letters from Orin and answered by todays mail. He seem to have the Cal. fever and I am ____ of it for I know something myself of the Kan and MO climates. He will have to charter a car to get his family out here. Write him freely what to do. There will be plenty of work in the various camps near here this season and for years to come for that matter. A letter from Mrs. J. R. Conner states all are quite well there this winter and that Florence and Fred Conner will visit us this year. Fred in Sep. Florence ________? Uncle George Conner youngest daughter is visiting her married sister in Los Angeles Cal. Mrs. Rose Bradley formerly Rose Conner now a widow living in Neb. talks of visiting Cal this (last line missing).

I am too busy to even guess what I may be able to do in the way of visiting. Sometimes I think I should like to visit our old home then again I think of all the changes wrought by death in our family and then feel as if I could not ever care to see the old home again.

So, I keep busy at my chosen calling waiting the change that comes to us all sooner or later.

I expect to go to the mountains by Apr 15th and remain until July 1 at least. My daughter & husband have gone to Portland Oregon to live. He has a married sister there and they are anxious to be where Hazel can go to school and be able to secure a musical education so Jas. G. and I are batching it again.

Orin and Jas. G. is near the same age I believe and it seems quite a contrast. Orin has six children & Jim none. Orin has the medal, fairly and square? I began to think the Conner stock was on the decline but now I will take it all back.

Give our regards to your husband and family when you write them. I will try and see them all by and by.

As ever your loving Brother

FAYETTE COUNTY,

TOGETHER WITH

HISTORIC NOTES ON THE NORTHWEST,

AND

THE STATE OF OHIO.

GLEANED FROM EARLY AUTHORS, OLD MAPS AND MANUSCRIPTS,

By R. S. DILLS.

ODELL & MAYER, PUBLISHERS.
DAYTON, OHIO.

Elda J., and died July 15, 1868. He then married Mary E. Torbitte, of this county, August 8, 1871. He is a member of Jamestown Lodge No. 181, I. O. O. F., and served two years in Company C, 114th O. V. I. He and his wife are members of the Methodist Protestant Church.

HORNEY ROBISON.

Horney Robison, farmer, is a son of William Robison, who came to Ohio in 1803, and located in Greene County, where he remained until 1805, when he came to Fayette, and located where our subject now lives. He was married in Virginia to Hanna Horney, our subject's mother. Then this county was very thinly settled by white men. The Indians helped him to raise his first cabin, as there were not enough white men to do it.

Our subject was born, September 14, 1835, on the farm where he now lives, and owns one hundred and sixty-five acres, well improved, situated two and a half miles northwest of Jeffersonville. He has his farm rented, and lives with the renter, as he is not yet married. He is a member of Jeffersonville Lodge No. 468, F. & A. M., joining about 1866.

JOHN W. ROEBUCK.

John W. Roebuck, grain and lumber dealer, Jeffersonville, is a son of Hugh and Liddie (Farmer) Roebuck. He came with his parents to this state, when at the age of six months, located in Ross County, and remained nine years, then removed to this county, located near Bloomingburg, and remained until 1851; then removed to the northern part of this township where the father died, in 1864. Mrs. Roebuck was born in this county, in 1803. They were married in 1826, and had nine children—our subject being the seventh—of whom four are living.

Their house was a place for holding religious services for years, as there were no churches in the neighborhood. They were members of the Methodist Church, in which faith they died.

Our subject was born in this county, March 12, 1841, where he was reared and educated, and taught school two terms. He was married, October 30, 1866, to Miss Martha J. Conner; seven children being the result of this union: Frank L., Harry S., Joe B., Lynn L., Ida A., Elba F. and an infant, who is deceased.

Mr. Roebuck is a member of the Masonic fraternity, of Jeffersonville, having joined the order at Washington, in 1864. He is a charter member of the Jeffersonville Lodge No. 468, and served as Master three years. He was a citizen of Alabama two years, and during that time was a member of the State Board of Registration. He served seven months as a volunteer in the Union army, Company H, 60th O. V. I., and was taken prisoner at Harper's Ferry, September 16, 1862, and discharged before his time expired. While in Alabama, he was appointed as postmaster of the Calhoon postoffice, on the Alabama and Florida Railroad.

SAMUEL M. SANDERSON.

Samuel M. Sanderson, farmer, West Lancaster, is a son of James and Sarah (Newman) Sanderson, who were married, in 1812, and had a family of twelve children, our subject being the ninth; they are all living. The parents came to this county, in 1812, and remained through life. Mr. Sanderson died, in 1867, aged seventy-seven years. Mrs. Sanderson is living, is eighty-nine years of age, and is in good health considering her age.

Our subject was born, January 12, 1829, and was reared in this, his native county, where he married Miss Mary Gray, daughter of Charles and Rebecca Gray, December 26, 1853, who has borne him five children: Rebecca J., Sallie N., Lucy J., Charles B. and Lillie C. Charles died, August, 1864, aged eight years. Mr. and Mrs. Sanderson are members of the Methodist Church, with which they united years ago.

He has a farm of forty acres, situated three-fourths mile east of West Lancaster, on the Washington pike. He served about four months in the late war, Company G, 168th O. N. G., and is a Republican. When a young man, he taught school about six years, and is a highly respected citizen.

JOHN C. STAUBUS.

John C. Staubus, farmer, Edgefield, is a native of Virginia, where his parents, Jacob and Rachel (Swatzel) Staubus now live. The father is a native of Germany, and came to the United States when three years of age. The mother is a native of Virginia where they were married, and reared a family of five children, John C. being the oldest.

arrived at their destination on the 18th of the same month, and remained in this county until 1849, when they went to Indiana. Our subject has a farm of two hundred and seventeen acres, well improved, and farms chiefly to grain at present, previously to stock. Was elected county commissioner in 1865, and held the office until 1871. The new infirmary, and many other county improvements, were made during his administration. He taught school in one of the old school houses, which has long ago given place to the new. He has been a member of the board of education for twenty years, and has been clerk of his school district for the same length of time.

Frederick W. Carper, farmer, Grape Grove, was born in Virginia, November 10, 1815, where he was reared. Married Miss Mariam Ritenour March 15, 1841, who bore him eleven children: Joseph R., Louisa, Scott, Taylor, Hall, Anna B., James M., Mariam, Mercella, Ella, and Lolie; eight living. Joseph died at Washington, D. C., June 2, 1865, of a disease contracted by compulsory exposure, while in the service of his perishing country. Volunteered in 1862; served in Company A, Ninetieth Ohio Volunteer Infantry. Anna and Mariam are also deceased. Mrs. Carper died February 2, 1871, aged fifty-two years. She was an exemplary member of the Disciple Church, in which faith she died triumphantly. The surviving children, save James, Ella, and Lola, are married, which leaves a small though pleasant family to cheer the father in his declining years. He farmed from early manhood till 1879, when he removed to Grape Grove, where he now lives.

George W. Conner, farmer, Jamestown, is a native of Fayette County. He was born August 24, 1830, and reared and educated in that county. Came to this county in 1856, and was married February 20, 1862, to Mary A. Atkinson, four children being the result of the union: James R. M., Charles E., Lyle Rose, and Paris F., who died June 4, 1871, aged eleven months. Mrs. Conner died October 26, 1872. She was a member of the Protestant Methodist Church at the time of her death—was formerly a member of the Wesleyan Methodist Church. She united with that church when about the age of twelve years, at which time she was soundly converted. She died of consumption. Regardless of her suffering she clung to her Christianity, and died triumphantly. Mr. Conner married Mary C. McMorrow May 6, 1873, who bore him three children, George F., Clara B., and Cordelia C. Of these, two survive. George F. died August 4, 1875, aged two months. Mr. and Mrs. Conner are members of the Protestant Methodist Church. Mr. Conner united with the church when about twelve years of age: his wife was about thirteen years of age when she joined. Although they were young, they have never regretted having taken that step in Christian life.

James K. Conner, farmer, Jamestown, is a native of Fayette County, and was born January 30, 1822, living in that county till 1847. Was married May 10, 1846, to Rebecca (Mercer) Conner, who bore him five children: John W., Sarah E., James B., Orange M., and Eli R.; all living. She is a native of Frederick County, Virginia, but was reared in Ohio. Mr. Conner is a farmer, and has also given some attention to horticulture and bees. He has a farm of one hundred and seventy-five acres, on which he now lives, and it is well improved. Mr. and Mrs. Conner are members of the Methodist Church, he uniting with the society in 1842, she about 1838. Mr. Conner's conversion was one of permanency and great comfort to him. He has seen times of spiritual darkness, yet he is pressing on to the end of the race, where he feels there is a crown of everlasting life for him. Mrs. Conner is journeying with him, hand in hand.

Thomas H. Harper, farmer, Selma, Clarke County, Ohio, is a native of this county; born March 17, 1834, and has been a resident of this county all his life. Was married to Rilla (Herriman) Harper, January 16, 1865. They have three children living; two deceased; Idella, Ottis, and Henry, survive. Mary and William died at the early age of two years. Their children are all unmarried, and are at home with their parents. Mr. Harper has a farm of six hundred and fifty-six acres well improved; farms chiefly to stock. Mrs. Harper is a member of the Methodist Church. Thomas' father, was a native of Maryland, and came to this county about the year 1804; was married May 17, 1818, to Mary (Sirlott) Harper; and lived in this county the remainder of his life; died January 13, 1878. Mrs. Harper died April 6, 1873. Mr. Harper was a farmer, owning a farm of nine hundred and ninety-five acres. He had five children, William Harrison, Minerva Ann, George W., Thomas H., and Mary L., all of whom are living.

Walker G. Hill, farmer, a native of Virginia, was born January 4, 1842, was partly raised in that state, and came to Ohio with his parents in 1851, locating in the county and township where he now

Dear Mary,

I am sorry to be so late in answering your June letter. I put it back and it got covered up.

I'll try to answer your questions as best as I can at this time. I have a copy of that "Conner Genealogy" that you enclosed in your letter. I may have originally sent it to you some time ago. This chart I'm told was compiled by Theodore Conner, son of Orange Marcus Conner.

Theodore Conner's brother, Charles Mc Kinley Conner had three children: Elinor Rose Conner, David Theodore Conner, and James Edward Conner. James Edward Conner lives in Perrysburg OH where I visited him about two years ago. His first cousin, Humbert Charles Conner also lives in Perrysburg where I also visited him about two years ago.

I believe that it was Elinor Rose Conner who lives in Columbus Ohio that gave me that Conner chart originally. The original may be in the possession of Humbert Charles' brother Melville Arwine Conner who lived (2 years ago) at:
319 Bay Ave.
Long Island, N.Y. 11743
I have never contacted him.

You say that you can not prove the marriage of Matilda Conner to a Creamer. My chart does not show a Matilda, daughter of James & Elsie Conner.

Do you have the marriage dates of George W. Conner and Elizabeth Conner to Daniel Bush?

Sincerely,

Sherwood A. Conner

Sherwood A. Conner

P.S. This is my first letter printed out by computer.

James' funeral notice was on the left side of the page and the edge was cut off so I typed it like it appeared in the column so you can see some letters are missing. Also, I forgot to check to see just what they were calling the newspaper in 1928. Some years it was just the Searchlight. Sorry.

Do you know where James' died? I didn't find him in the California Death Index. The cemetery book lists his death date as May14. The May 15 funeral notice says he was buried o the 14th. That's unusual. I only checked back a day or two for an obituary. Next time I think I'll go to the historical society. Duane thinks they have a better reader. Our library is quite new, state of the art. Sometimes the old-fashioned way is better........

The FHC here has the Home funeral records and I think they allow copies. So I'll check tomorrow (hopefully)

Mary,
Thank you for setting me straight. I truly appreciate all information that I can get. My Great grandmother was Anne Mariah McNamee, Milton Prose McNamee's sister. She married George Willis Butcher, brother of Nancy Catherine Butcher. Do you have any information on Betsy's parents? I would appreciate any and all help you can give. I would be happy to share with you if I can. I have quite a bit on the Mcnamee and Butcher lines. I also have pictures of George Willis and Anne Mariah and their children.

Dear Mary,
I am so grateful for the information that you sent. Thank You! I do work at the University of Nevada but sorry to say I am not a teacher. I work as a police dispatcher there. I have taught a couple of Genealogy classes at church though. The email account is a perk for working there. I will send you via snail mail the information that I have on the Butcher and Mcnamee's just as soon as I can get things together.
Thank you again for your consideration.
Jeannie

Hi Mary,

Descendants of James Monroe Coil

1. James was born Jan. 23, 1850, in Ross Co. Ohio and died june 21, 1919 in Salt Lake City, Utah.
He married Mary Priscilla Smith March 22, 1882 in Corinne, daughter of Henry Smith and Lovina Wakely. She was born March 16, 1866 in Virginia City, Madison Co., Montana, and died Feb. 8, 1940, in Los Angeles. James and Mary are both buried at Mount Olivet Cemetary in Salt Lake along with my grandparents daughter Sunshine. Most of their married life was spent in Corinne. James was Town Marshall from Nov. 3, 1905 to Oct. 4, 1909. He also belonged to the Masonic Lodge there.His death certificate shows that he was a retired Station Engineer and had been retired about 9 years when he died. Mary Priscilla died 2 years before I was born. When the family came to California I believe she came with them and lived with my great aunt Lola.

Children of James and Mary are:

Henry Harrison Coil (My grandfather) b Oct.16,1883, Corinne, Utah, died May 9, 1961, Lomita, Ca. Married Pansy Eleanor McLean, March 16, 1907, in Corinne, born Feb. 22, 1886, in St. James, Mn. died June 3, 1975 in Harbor City, Ca. Both are buried at Green Hills Cemetary, Rancho Palos Verdes, Ca.

Lovina Henryetta Coil, born March 16, 1885,Corinne, Married Brady Hanna, Utah, died January 15, 1971, Colton, Ca.

James Monroe Coil born July 8, 1887, Corinne, died May 6, 1973, Ogden, Utah. Married Virgie who preceeded him in death. They had no children but did have a farm in Ogden and raised iris bulbs and shipped them. I visited with my parents when I was about 6 years old.

Mary Sunshine Coil born 1889 in Corinne. Married to Leslie Breeze. No other info on her as yet.

BOX ELDER COUNTY

Area: 5,614 square miles; population: 36,485 (in 1990); county seat: Brigham City; origin of county name: named for the many box elder trees growing there; principal cities/towns: Brigham City (15,644), Tremonton (4,264), Garland (1,637), Willard (1,298), Perry (1,211), Honeyville (1,112), Bear River (700), Clarkston (645), Corinne (639); economy: agriculture, aerospace/defense; points of interest: Willard Bay, Crystal Hot Springs, Brigham City Museum and Gallery, Golden Spike National Historic Site, Box Elder LDS Tabernacle in Brigham City, Willard Historic District, Bear River Migratory Bird Refuge.

Located in the upper northwest corner of the state of Utah, Box Elder County is part of the Great Basin region and embraces a large land area extending from the west spur of the Wasatch Mountains to the Idaho border and westward to Nevada. It includes portions of the Great Salt Lake and the Great Salt Lake Desert. On the east are the lower course and deltas of the Bear River, the Malad River Valley, and the Promontory Mountains. Diverse in topography, the county contains rich farmlands as well as extensive marshlands at the mouth of the Bear River.

Prehistoric big-game hunters seeking mammoths, camels, and bison roamed the area as early as 12,000 years ago, as did Indians of the later Plains Culture. Danger Cave, Promontory Caves, Hogup Cave, and Shallow Shelter are among the important archaeological sites found in Box Elder County. During the 1820s and 1830s fur trappers, including Peter Skene Ogden and Joseph R. Walker, explored the eastern and northern parts of the county. Permanent white settlement began in 1851 when a group of Mormons took up land in North Willow Creek (Willard). Brigham City was settled that year. Because the land was already inhabited by Shoshoni Indians, livestock raids and violent clashes between Indians and settlers were common until Territorial Governor James Duane Doty negotiated the Treaty of Box Elder on 30 July 1863 in Brigham City.

In 1856 the territorial legislature created Box Elder County from part of Weber County. Its boundaries were redefined in 1880 when the legislature divided the water and islands of the Great Salt Lake among Salt Lake, Davis, Weber, Tooele, and Box Elder counties.

The most significant event in Box Elder County history took place on 10 May 1869 at Promontory when the driving of the Golden Spike joined the Central Pacific and the Union Pacific railroads to complete the transcontinental line. Corinne, a feisty, non-Mormon boomtown, became the freight transfer point for goods shipped to Idaho and Montana. In July 1870 Corinne residents spurred the founding of the Liberal party to oppose the Mormons' People's party.

Agriculture has always played an important role in the economy of Box Elder County. Some 43 percent of the county's land is used for agricultural purposes. Besides the standard crops of hay, grain, and alfalfa, beginning in 1901 sugar beets were also raised, and kept two sugar factories, one in Garland and the other in Brigham City, operating for many years. Abundant fruit orchards and garden crops continue to contribute to the local economy. Since 1957, when Thiokol Chemical (now Morton-Thiokol) began its Brigham City operation, defense and aerospace have dominated the local economy and presently employ some 5,000 people. Morton-Thiokol built the Minuteman missile and the space shuttle booster rockets.

Hi Mary,

Thank you for the information. Ethel Mae married Ira Greenwalt. Her greatgrandson's wife found me from the Internet. I also have had emails from Jeff Potter who lives in Kentucky and is the great great grandson of Aniel and Mehettie. He sent me a picture of them. I would like your address and I will mail you information on Aniels family plus a copy of the picture. I have their marriage license also if you would like a copy. Are you a descendant of the Conners. I have a copy of the Conner family bible information that I got from the Fayette Ohio Genealogical Society that I would be happy to send you a copy of also.
